

Welcome to the 2019-20 season

Another season is upon us - with some teams competing in their second or third event already.

CurlON has been working on our competition releases and updated calendars. Linked below is a review of 2018-19 season and an operations update to the 2019-20 competitions along with an invitation to participate in a Player Advisory Group to have your voice heard and help shape the future of CurlON Championships. If interested please submit your name by September 15, 2019.
